- Book summary/description: I'm Proud to Be Natural Me! is the story of a little girl who is teased because of the texture of her hair. Her mom teaches her that her hair is part of her identity and that she is beautiful the way that God created her. By the end of the story the little girl is saying, "I've learned to love what I see. I'm proud to be natural me!" Created to promote healthy self-esteem, this book teaches children that "we are ALL beautiful as is."
